

Dr. Danaher is a graduate of Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine. After medical school, he went on to a distinguished career in the United States Navy. Dr. Danaher did his formal Anesthesiology training at Naval Hospital San Diego and served his nation all over the globe.

Captain Danaher retired from the Navy after twenty years of honorable service.

During his tenure, he served as the Vice Chairman of the Department of Anesthesiology at Naval Medical Center, San Diego. In addition, he was the Director of the Pain Management Clinic and directed several continuing medical education conferences for chronic pain management. Captain Danaher also served as Officer in Charge of a Forward Resuscitative Combat Surgical Team during Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Dr. Danaher completed his fellowship training in pain medicine at the prestigious Brigham and Women's Hospital at Harvard Medical School in Boston, Massachusetts. He joined Advanced Pain and Spine Institute in 2005.

Specialty
Anesthesiology

Undergraduate Education: □

Sain John's University,
BA Zoology, Cum Laude

Medical School

Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine

Internship

Naval Hospital Bremerton, Washington
Family Practice Internship

Residency

Naval Medical Center San Diego
-Anesthesiology Residency

Fellowship

Brigham and Women's Hospital Harvard Medical School
-Pain Management

Board Certifications

American Board of Anesthesiology
American Board of Anesthesiology Pain Medicine

Hospital Privileges

Community Medical Center
St. Patrick's Hospital
Big Sky Surgery Center
Providence Surgery Center
Marcus Daly Memorial Hospital